

Creation Studies

A study of Genesis 1-3

“The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science. He to whom the emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand wrapped in awe, is as good as dead —his eyes are closed. The insight into the mystery of life, coupled though it be with fear, has also given rise to religion. To know what is impenetrable to us really exists, manifesting itself as the highest wisdom and the most radiant beauty, which our dull faculties can comprehend only in their most primitive forms—this knowledge, this feeling is at the center of true religiousness.”

- Albert Einstein

Class Goals

An appreciation of the glory, power, mind and majesty of the Creator, the Lord God, in all things.

An appreciation of the foundational nature of the first three chapters in the Bible.

An attempt to see paradigms and patterns which can enlighten other Biblical passages.

To present avenues for future private study.

1. That something has existed from eternity
2. That there has existed from eternity one immutable and independent being
3. That immutable and independent being, which has existed from eternity, without any external cause

4. What the substance or essence of that being is, which is self-existent or necessarily existing, we have no idea, neither is it at all possible for us to comprehend it.

5. That though the substance or essence of the self-existent being is itself absolutely incomprehensible to us, yet many of the

5. (cont) essential attributes of his nature are strictly demonstrable as well as his existence, and, in the first place, that he must be of necessity eternal

6. That the self-existent being must of necessity be infinite and omnipresent

7. Must be but one.

8. Must be an intelligent being

9. Must be not a necessary agent, but a being endued with liberty and choice.

10. Must of necessity have infinite power

11. Must be infinitely wise

12. Must of necessity be a being of infinite goodness, justice, and truth, and all other moral perfections, such as become the supreme govenor and judge of the world.
